

Sermões Publicados de Ellen G. White

| Ano  | Data            | Título                                                                                                         | Local                                                     |
|------|-----------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|
| 1869 | 26 de março     | Diligence in the Work of Preparation                                                                           | Battle Creek, Michigan                                    |
| 1874 |                 | Called to the Wedding Feast                                                                                    | Washington, Township, Iowa                                |
| 1883 | 20 de novembro  | Charge to Ministers and Laymen: Labor Together for Souls                                                       | Battle Creek, Michigan                                    |
| 1884 | 16 de maio      | Diet and Health                                                                                                | Los Angeles, California                                   |
| 1885 | 7 de março      | Hearing and Doing                                                                                              | Santa Rosa, California                                    |
| 1885 | 9 de novembro   | Christian Fellowship                                                                                           | Christania, Norway                                        |
| 1886 | 23 de julho     | Preparation for Christ's Coming                                                                                | Copenhagen, Denmark                                       |
| 1886 | 27 de junho     | Preparation for the Judgment                                                                                   | Orebro, Sweden                                            |
| 1886 | 24 de julho     | Having Our Conversation In Heaven                                                                              | Copenhagen, Denmark                                       |
| 1886 | 19 de setembro  | The Privilege of Being a Christian                                                                             | Grimsby, England                                          |
| 1886 | 21 de setembro  | Preach the Third Angel's Message                                                                               | Grimsby, England                                          |
| 1887 | 7 de março      | The Need of Earnest, Intelligent Workers                                                                       | Basel, Switzerland                                        |
| 1888 | Outubro         | Remarks After Reading An Article Written Before Coming to the Conference                                       | Minneapolis, Minnesota                                    |
| 1888 | 8 de outubro    | How To Become True Ministers of Christ                                                                         | Kansas City, Missouri                                     |
| 1888 | 1 de dezembro   | The Minister's Relationship to God's Word                                                                      | Des Moines, Iowa                                          |
| 1888 |                 | Religious Liberty                                                                                              |                                                           |
| 1889 | 12 de maio      | Picking Flaws Morning                                                                                          | Ottawa, Kansas                                            |
| 1889 | 14 de maio      | Behold Christ's Glory Morning                                                                                  | Ottawa, Kansas                                            |
| 1889 | 14 de maio      | Preparation for Christ's Coming                                                                                | Ottawa, Kansas                                            |
| 1889 | 19 de junho     | Christ and the Law                                                                                             | Rome, New York                                            |
| 1890 | 1 de fevereiro  | Heaven's Part in Life's Conflict                                                                               | Battle Creek, Michigan                                    |
| 1890 | 3 de fevereiro  | Remarks at the Bible School                                                                                    | Battle Creek, Michigan                                    |
| 1890 | 6 de fevereiro  | Who Will Accept the Light from Heaven?                                                                         |                                                           |
| 1890 | 9 de março      | The Spirit of Discernment                                                                                      |                                                           |
| 1890 | 16 de março     | Cherishing Faith, Not Doubt                                                                                    | Battle Creek, Michigan                                    |
| 1890 |                 | The Work in Michigan                                                                                           |                                                           |
| 1890 | 14 de julho     | Make the Best Use of Your Talents                                                                              | Lake Goguac                                               |
| 1891 | 18 de abril     | Work to Show Christ to the World                                                                               | Greenville, Michigan                                      |
| 1891 | 22 de junho     | The Importance of Exercising Faith                                                                             | Harbor Heights, Michigan                                  |
| 1891 | 20 de agosto    | The Danger of na Independent Spirit                                                                            | Harbor Heights, Michigan                                  |
| 1891 | 3 de setembro   | Remarks by Ellen G. White at the Michigan Conference Meeting                                                   | Michigan                                                  |
| 1891 | 19 de setembro  | Fruits of Conversion                                                                                           | Healdsburg, California                                    |
| 1891 | 26 de setembro  | Work and Baptism of Holy Spirit Needed                                                                         | Healdsburg, California                                    |
| 1893 | 28 de março     | Search the Scriptures                                                                                          | Pavilion, Napier, New Zealand                             |
| 1893 | Setembro        | Temperance                                                                                                     |                                                           |
| 1894 | 11 de fevereiro | Keep the Commandments                                                                                          | Williamstown (a suburb of Melbourne), Victoria, Australia |
| 1894 | 18 de fevereiro | Eternal Life                                                                                                   | Prahran (a suburb of Melbourne),Victoria, Australia       |
| 1894 | 13 de maio      | Importance of True Sabbathkeeping by the Entire Family                                                         | Parramatta, N.S.W                                         |
| 1894 | 28 de outubro   | Seeking Heavenly Treasures                                                                                     | Campground, Ashfield                                      |
| 1895 |                 | "Walk in the Spirit"                                                                                           |                                                           |
| 1895 | Novembro        | Christ Spans the Gulf of Sin                                                                                   | Armadale Camp Meeting                                     |
| 1896 | 20 de dezembro  | Camp Meeting Message on True Education                                                                         | "Sunnyside", Cooranbong, N.S.W                            |
| 1898 | 14 de abril     | Workers in Denominational Institutions to Be Spiritual; Counsel on Sunday Work, Holidays, and Healthful Living | North Fitzroy, Victoria, Australia                        |
| 1898 | 30 de agosto    | The Ministry                                                                                                   |                                                           |
| 1898 |                 | The Leaven of Truth                                                                                            |                                                           |
| 1898 | 25 de novembro  | God's Truth and Spirit to Control and Purify the Life; Self to Be Subdued; Faith to Be Exercised               | Rockhampton, Queensland                                   |
| 1899 |                 | The Will of God Concerning You                                                                                 |                                                           |
| 1899 | 13 de abril     | Light to Go Forth From Avondale; Holy Spirit on These Grounds                                                  | Avondale, Australia                                       |
| 1899 | 23 de julho     | Talk Faith, and Move Forward                                                                                   | Cooranbong, N.S.W                                         |
| 1900 | 2 de fevereiro  | Words to Students                                                                                              |                                                           |
| 1900 | 13 de novembro  | Medical Missionary Work and the Gospel Ministry                                                                | St. Helena, California                                    |
| 1901 | 27 de março     | Christ, Our Loving Comforter and Restorer                                                                      | St. Helena, California                                    |
| 1901 | 28 de março     | An Appeal to Prepare the Heart to Receive the Holy Spirit                                                      | Battle Creek, Michigan                                    |

|      |                |                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                    |
|------|----------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1901 | 3 de abril     | Seek God for Wisdom and Power; Feed on the Bread of Life                                         | Battle Creek, Michigan (Tarbenacle)                                                                                                |
| 1901 | 14 de abril    | The Christian Life                                                                               | Battle Creek, Michigan                                                                                                             |
| 1901 |                | The Work in the South; Money Wrongly Diverted Plans and Decisions to Be Made Locally             | Battle Creek, Michigan (Review chapel)                                                                                             |
| 1901 | 5 de outubro   | The Christian's Hope                                                                             | St. Helena, California                                                                                                             |
| 1901 |                | The Giving of the Law                                                                            |                                                                                                                                    |
| 1902 |                | Our Elder Brother                                                                                |                                                                                                                                    |
| 1902 | 7 de junho     | Lessons From the First Chapter of Second Peter                                                   | Petaluma, California                                                                                                               |
| 1902 | 19 de junho    | Dangers of Worldly Policies and Principles; A Plea for Obedience, Righteousness, and Unity       | Pacific Union Medical Missionary Council, Sanitarium Chapel, St. Helena, California                                                |
| 1902 | 1 de outubro   | The Student's Privilege                                                                          | Fernando, California                                                                                                               |
| 1902 | 1 de outubro   | Words to Students                                                                                | Fernando, California                                                                                                               |
| 1902 | 22 de novembro | The Divine-Human Christ Set Forth in Revelation                                                  | Sanitarium Chapel, St. Helena, California                                                                                          |
| 1903 |                | Instruction Regarding the Establishment of Institutions; Restaurants to Be Closed on the Sabbath | St. Helena, California (Sanitarium Chapel)                                                                                         |
| 1903 | 1 de agosto    | Whoso Offereth Praise Glorifieth God                                                             | Sanitarium Chapel, St. Helena, California                                                                                          |
| 1903 | 20 de agosto   | Self-Improvement                                                                                 | Healdsburg, California (Teachers' Institute, College Chapel)                                                                       |
| 1904 | 23 de janeiro  | Lessons From the Fifty-Eighth Chapter of Isaiah                                                  |                                                                                                                                    |
| 1904 | 22 de maio     | A Plea for Unity                                                                                 | Berrien Springs, Michigan                                                                                                          |
| 1904 |                | The Foundation of Our Faith                                                                      |                                                                                                                                    |
| 1905 | 1 de maio      | Marriage and the Christian Home                                                                  | Sanitarium in California                                                                                                           |
| 1905 | 27 de novembro | Growing in Grace                                                                                 | Sanitarium in California                                                                                                           |
| 1906 |                | Instruction to Sanitarium and Restaurant Workers                                                 |                                                                                                                                    |
| 1906 | 3 de junho     | God's Judgments on the Cities                                                                    | A message to Seventh-day Adventists in America and Australia, written six weeks after the April 18, 1906, San Francisco earthquake |
| 1906 | 27 de junho    | Address to Young People                                                                          | St. Helena, California (Camp Meeting)                                                                                              |
| 1906 | 20 de outubro  | Lessons from the Fifteenth of Romans                                                             | Oakland, California,                                                                                                               |
| 1907 | 4 de julho     | Lessons From the Visions of Ezekiel                                                              | Designated "to be read in Battle Creek, Oakland, Chicago, and other large churches."                                               |
| 1907 | 20 de outubro  | Why We Have Sanitariums                                                                          | St. Helena, California (Sanitarium)                                                                                                |
| 1908 | 10 de março    | Abiding in Christ                                                                                | Oakland., California                                                                                                               |
| 1908 | 7 de maio      | "As Little Children"                                                                             | Lodi, California                                                                                                                   |
| 1908 | 9 de maio      | Lessons From the Experiences of Pentecost                                                        | Lodi, California                                                                                                                   |
| 1909 | 6 de junho     | An Appeal To Work the Cities                                                                     | Washington                                                                                                                         |
| 1909 | 27 de agosto   | Lessons From the First Chapter of Daniel                                                         | Kansas City, Missouri (Camp Meeting)                                                                                               |
| 1909 | 16 de outubro  | I Am the True Vine                                                                               | San Jose, California                                                                                                               |
| 1910 | 28 de janeiro  | A Call to Work the Cities, Giving Particular Attention to Nationality Groups                     | Mountain View, California                                                                                                          |
| 1912 |                | The Fruitless Fig Tree                                                                           |                                                                                                                                    |
| 1913 | 15 de junho    | Following on to Know the Lord                                                                    | Sanitarium Church School Picnic                                                                                                    |
| 1913 | 27 de setembro | I Will Not Leave You Comfortless                                                                 | St. Helena, California                                                                                                             |

- Extraído de Sermons and Talks, vols. 1-2